

GROWN-UP GALA THRILLS A PACKED HOUSE

Over 400 employees, retirees and guests enjoyed an evening of fun at the 6th annual Grown-Up Gala on Friday, April 27, at Five Points in Washington. The sold out crowd enjoyed dinner, dessert, games, and prizes in the banquet room.

Following dinner, attendees moved to the Caterpillar Performing Arts Center within the Five Points facility where they were entertained by The Van-Dells. Guests were kept shimmying, dancing and twisting in their seats with the sounds of music from the 50s and 60s.

"The Grown-Up Gala was such an enjoyable event last year that my wife and I could hardly wait for this year's event. The food was great, the game was fun, the prizes looked good even though we did not win, and the entertainment was wonderful. Thanks for a job well done," commented Roger Leach from Global IT/Facility Services Division.

Julie Selman from Global Revenue Management Group remarked "This is the 5th year I've attended the Grown-Up Gala and have never been disappointed...every year seems better than the last! What a wonderful evening of great food, fantastic entertainment, along with an opportunity to 'catch-up' with co-workers that are no longer working. Thank you, Social Activities group, for all of the work you do to provide this enjoyable evening!"

Caterpillar Retirees Club

The Caterpillar Retirees Club (CRC) celebrated its 45-year anniversary on Sunday, May 6. Club members and their guests enjoyed dinner at the Pekin Moose Lodge and then were entertained by the 9 to Five Vocal Entertainment group. Ed Rapp, Group President and CFO, spoke to the group highlighting how important the retiree legacy is to Caterpillar along with an update on current Caterpillar business.

The CRC is open to all Caterpillar retirees and their spouses. The Club promotes the continuity of friendship developed by Caterpillar employees during their years of service at Caterpillar plants worldwide. The Club offers members a wide range of activities including opportunities to volunteer in the community, Caterpillar Employee Blood Drives, hospital visits to fellow members, and bus trips.

Club members meet each Friday at 11:00 a.m. in the Fondulac Administration Building at 201 Veterans Drive in East Peoria.

CRC invites all retirees to call the office at 699-5412 to sign up for the monthly newsletter and enjoy the social interactions of former fellow associates.
