

Bissell Mansion Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre Bus Trip

Almost 100 employees, retirees, and their guests gathered to attend the Bissell Mansion Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre overnight bus trip. Two charter buses left Peoria early Saturday, February 2, and returned on Sunday, with overnight lodging at The Hampton Inn in downtown St. Louis. Upon arrival in St. Louis, attendees had their choice of enjoying the afternoon at The Galleria Mall, the Lumiere Place Casino, or visiting Laclede's Landing and other sights in downtown St. Louis. Later in the evening, attendees were taken to St. Louis' oldest historic home built in the mid-1820s. Guests received an "identity" and participated in the show...some with a starring role and others with a simple line. Everyone enjoyed an interactive and very entertaining evening of trying to solve the mystery of whodunit.

Tina Lister, Process Support, commented "I took my mother and sisters for a little bonding time and we all had a blast! The bus hostesses made the trip fly by. Everything was so well organized...the most work I had to do was to pack my bag. The show was hilarious and the food was delicious. All of the people within our bus that were given lines during the show did an awesome job and had me cracking up the whole time! I did not realize there were such actors within the Cat employees and retirees. We met several fun people at our table and on the bus ride and look forward to the next trip. This is our third trip and I believe it has become our annual bonding event."

CHICAGO BLACKHAWKS BUS TRIP

A relief to many hockey fans took place when the NHL lockout finally ended. Additional group tickets became very limited once the games actually began due to the fact that the Chicago Blackhawks had remained undefeated in regulation. A group of employees, retirees, and their guests travelled by charter coach to the United Center on March 1 to see the Chicago Blackhawks take on the Columbus Blue Jackets. Eric McAllister, Enterprise Web Solutions, commented "The Chicago Blackhawks Bus Trip was an economical, stress-free, and family-friendly event. The kids loved the games and movie on the way up, we enjoyed the stress-free travel, and, of course, the Hawks sell themselves. We appreciated being able to pack a cooler on the bus to save money and enjoy our favorite snacks. The really cool thing is that we were able to talk with the kids as much (or as little) as all of us wanted—something we cannot do when driving in Chicago during a Friday evening rush where the focus is on driving safely in downtown Chicago!" There was an extreme amount of excitement in the air as the Blackhawks ended up defeating the Blue Jackets in overtime with a score of 4-3.
