Grown-Up GALA

7th Annual Grown-Up Gala

Over 400 employees, retirees and guests enjoyed an evening of fun at the 7th annual Grown-Up Gala on Friday, April 26, at Five Points in Washington. The sold out crowd enjoyed dinner, dessert, games, and prizes in the banquet room.

Dan Flessner, Advanced Components Systems, commented "We had a very good time! It was a very well-run event. The Alley Cats were both humorous and played great music and Five Points was a terrific venue to hold the event." "My 85-year-old mom used to work in East Peoria Met Lab...and she wants to go every year too," added Sue Spencer, Customer Service Support.

Following dinner, attendees moved to the Caterpillar Performing Arts Center within the Five Points facility where they were entertained by The Alley Cats, America's Premier Doo Wop group and Jay Leno's opening act in Las Vegas. Guests enjoyed listening to the much-loved classics from the 50s and 60s.

CAT POWER Race

The 31st anniversary of the Cat Power Race took place on Saturday, May 18, with approximately 300 runners and walkers participating. Three races were held again this year: 5K Power Run, 1 Mile Fun Run/Walk, and the ½ Mile Kids Only Run. Employees, retirees and their dependents enjoyed the healthy competition on a slightly overcast but pleasant Saturday morning in the streets of downtown Peoria. Family and friends accompanied the participants to show their support. In addition to the multitude of volunteers that helped make the event a success, the Caterpillar Wellness Team was on hand to provide bottles of water to the participants and had made arrangements for massages to be offered to interested runners. At the completion of all three races, awards were given to winners in each age bracket.
