

Grown-Up GALA

The 9th annual Grown-Up Gala was held at Five Points in Washington on Friday, April 24. Over 400 employees, retirees and guests enjoyed an evening of fun which included dinner, dessert, games and prizes in the banquet room.

Following dinner, attendees moved to the Caterpillar Performing Arts Center within the Five Points facility where they were entertained by Close to You: Music of The Carpenters. Lisa Rock and her 6-piece band, complete with back-up singers, created a Carpenters' experience like no other. She drew the audience in with anecdotes about Karen and Richard Carpenter, their lives and how some of the songs originated.

"This was our first time for the Grown-Up Gala, but it certainly won't be our last. Everything was great, from the meal, the door prizes, the contest (our table won), to the entertainment.

The band was truly nostalgic and fantastic. The Social Activities team did an awesome job of planning, organizing and executing a very enjoyable evening," commented John Grimes, Robust Electronic Hardware Design. Howard Plumier, Machine EMC Test, added, "Thank you for a fun evening. My wife and I enjoyed the evening very much. The food was excellent, the games were fun, and the musical entertainment was very good and brought back memories from our past. We will be awaiting next year's gala."

CHICAGO BULLS TRIP

On Saturday, April 11, over 100 employees, retirees and their guests headed to United Center in Chicago to see the Chicago Bulls take on the Philadelphia 76ers. The variations of red encompassed the United Center. While the score was close at times, the Bulls stampeded the 76ers with a score of 114-107.

Joe Juskiv, Technical Information Solutions, commented, "The Chicago Bulls Bus Trip was a great way to experience the game. Anytime you don't have to worry about driving or parking in Chicago is a benefit! We also really liked the door prizes, bingo, and movie on the way up. We are already planning on going next year."

Basketball League comes to a close

Over 350 employees enjoyed exercise and recreation during the 2015 Caterpillar Basketball League. The league ran from January through mid-April and fielded 32 teams. Games were played Monday through Thursday at Norwood Elementary School and Quest Charter Academy. Caterpillar has sponsored athletic leagues for several decades to encourage employees to engage in fitness activities and to provide ways to interact with other employees in a social setting.
