

Movable Point Frog

Movable point frog design is designed using standard tee rail sections. These frogs are used in heavy tonnage track, high speed rail or where reduction in noise and vibration is important.

These frogs can easily reach over 1,000 MGT's with minimal maintenance.

The simplicity of the design makes it the most economical frog of its type built in the USA.

