GOVERNMENTAL LEASE BENEFITS

- > Offers special low interest rates—interest charge is normally less than the total cost of issuing a bond
- > May not require voter approval as with bond issuance
- > Lets you cancel your contract without penalty (on the last day of the appropriations period) if funding is not approved for the following year

GOVERNMENTAL TAX LEASE BENEFITS*

- > Generally provides lower monthly payments than purchase contracts
- > May not require voter approval as with bond issuance
- > Lets you cancel your contract without penalty (on the last day of the appropriations period) if funding is not approved for the following year

May require preapproval*

WHO'S ELIGIBLE

- > Any State (including District of Columbia), political subdivisions of a State (cities, towns, counties, other municipalities), or territories of the United States
- > Non-traditional governmental entities may qualify—hospitals, schools, and water districts and some agencies, authorities, boards, and commissions
- > Federally-recognized Native American Tribes
- > Qualified governmental entities should have some of the sovereign powers of State (i.e., power to tax, power to exercise eminent domain, power to police).
