

General Canopy Safety & Guidelines

Water
Your DSG canopy has been treated with a water resistant coating to help keep you dry. This coating is also resistant to Ultraviolet light, helping to protect you from the sun.

The water resistant coating is intended for use only in light rain conditions. Water collected in the fabric can cause the structure to collapse causing serious injury or death.

Excessive exposure to the sun can cause deterioration of the fabrics water resistant coating. To prevent this, the canopy should not be exposed to sunlight for long periods at a time.

Fire
The fabric cover is fire retardant and meets the standards of the Industrial Fabric Association International. However, continuous contact with a flame can cause a fire. Do not build fires under the canopy.

Fumes
Items creating hazardous fumes should be kept away from the canopy. Use of any product producing fumes in close proximity to your canopy can result in destruction of the canopy and injury and/or death.

Wind
DSG canopies are made for use in no to light wind. Use of this product in moderate to excessive wind can result in damage to the canopy and injury and/or death. This product should not be used in conditions with uncertain wind patterns or conditions that could result in excessive wind.

Storage
To insure maximum use of your DSG canopy, care should be taken when setting up, taking down, and storing the canopy. The canopy should be stored in a dry environment, secure from pests, fire, and other hazardous chemicals.

Let the fabric dry completely before closing or storing to avoid mildew, stains, and mold.

After each use, use a mild soap and plenty of water to clean the fabric. Let the fabric dry completely before storing. It is recommended that you use a seam sealer to prevent leaks along the seams of the fabric. Tighten the bolts on the canopy frame if they become loose.
