The dealer must cover the difference between the actual finance charges and the maximum reimbursement, plus their original financing percentage.

Note that any document other than the Wells Fargo Funding Receipt, such as authorization forms or charge slips, cannot be substituted.
- Dealer must have the Wells Fargo consumer account number in order to enter a claim.

Note: Dealers and homeowners entering claims should carefully review all models and serials to verify all entries as well as Wells Fargo plan codes to make sure they are complete and correct before submitting. Adjustments will not be made for claims submitted under the wrong promotion name or against the wrong plan code.

- Financing claims may vary by a few pennies based on rounding and carrying of decimals in the dealer/ American Standard reimbursement split.
- Agree to abide by all Sales Plan parameters and will only be reimbursed for claims following these guidelines.
- Note: Dealers will be able to complete the application process via Wells Fargo up to 3 business days from the sales date and complete the funding process via Wells Fargo up to 3 business days after the installation date in order to give time to close out the financing process.
- Claims failing to validate on the above points will be denied.
