Adobe Leaders&Learners 2019

Frequently Asked Questions

O What is the Adobe Leaders&Learners Program?

Adobe Leaders&Learners is an exclusive, by-invitation-only, networking event for key multi-channel Adobe clients. It brings together global thought leaders from various industries to network and interact face-to-face in focused group discussions and share industry best practices and success stories. The program, led by the Adobe Cloud Experts (ACE), has been in place since 2010.

O What is the value a customer receives from the Adobe Leaders&Learners forum?

A The most upfront and explicit value available to Leaders&Learners participants is the opportunity to meet and collaborate with industry peers as well as the Adobe Cloud Expert (ACE) team on the most relevant and actionable topics related to their digital marketing programs.

Activities at these events include:

- · Collaborating with digital marketing thought leaders from various industries
- Interacting face-to-face with Adobe subject matter experts
- · Learning best practices from the insights and experiences shared
- · Networking in a small group setting
- · Viewing comprehensive demonstrations of new solution features

Q How is the Adobe Leaders&Learners event different from other Adobe events?

Leaders&Learners is a white glove event for multi-channel digital marketing clients where participation is by invitation only. Unlike other Adobe events, the forum provides you an opportunity to learn from first hand experiences shared by other Adobe customers and apply these best practices to your own digital marketing programs. The ultimate goal of the Leaders&Learners program is to provide best practices to help dients get the highest return on their Adobe investment.

Q What is the cost associated with at tending a Leaders&Learners event?

A Participation in the event is complementary for our clients. However, customers need to make their own arrangements for travel, if any.

Q Where will Leaders&Learners be held?

A Thirteen (13) Adobe Leaders&Learners events are currently scheduled for 2019 in North America.
