WITH YOU ON THE WATER CAT® MARINE PRODUCTS AND SUPPORT

MEETING NEW EMISSION STANDARDS. SURPASSING EXPECTATIONS.

We asked Jason Spear, our Marine Product Definition Engineer, about the NO_x reduction technology we're offering to meet new U.S. and international engine emissions standards. We'll give you a hint: it's flexible, versatile, easy to integrate and it boasts big benefits for vessel owners like you. Read the interview here.

BUILT FOR IT.

THE NEWEST ADDITION

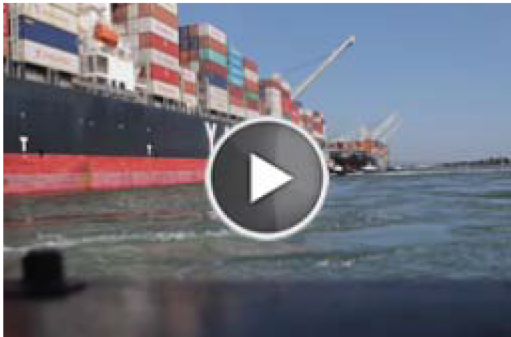

Meet the Cat® Reman 3406C engine. Like all our Reman models, it offers same-as-new performance at a fraction of the new-engine cost. How? We restore with state-of-the-art techniques, using only genuine Cat parts and include the latest engineering advancements.

To ensure every engine performs like we say they will, we back each with a new Marine engine warranty and ongoing Cat dealer support. Find out more about Cat Reman 3406C engines here.

INTRODUCING CAT ASSET INTELLIGENCE

Our Caterpillar Marine Asset Intelligence team provides technology enabled services and solutions to customers using data analytics and expert advisory services to predict and avoid equipment failures, reduce fuel and energy consumption, and optimize maintenance. This innovative technology and service offering compliments the Caterpillar Marine products and technologies that are focused on providing the highest level of uptime and the lowest life cycle cost.

EASY, AFFORDABLE OVERHAULS

Your work is hard – maintenance shouldn't be. Cat Marine Repair Solutions are specifically designed to simplify ordering, eliminate errors and reduce your costs. Our new 3600 and C280 series are a part of our Build-Your-Own solution line, which means you select only the parts your engine needs. See the 3600 and C280 Series Marine Repair Solutions here.

COAST-TO-COAST SUPPORT

Whether they're running a shrimping operation or a push boat, we're ensuring captains on every coast have what they need to keep their business going. With technical engine support, parts availability and parts coverage, we're keeping their vessel's engines ready for whatever work demands. See what customers are saying about Cat dealer support here.

FIVE-TIME YACHT OWNER BECOMES A FIRST-TIME CAT CUSTOMER WITH EXCELLENT RESULTS

His previous four yachts were powered by another brand of engine, but Gaston le Cam chose Cat C8.7 engines for his newest vessel, LISCORNO, and couldn't be happier with the results. Click here to read the story.
