

LEVERAGING DECADES OF EXPERIENCE TO SUPPORT YOUR JOURNEY TO ZERO.

Achieving the goal of zero safety incidents is always a top priority for the mining industry. For decades Caterpillar has been partnering with mining professionals who are on the journey to zero — developing safety technologies and helping mines implement new processes and build strong safety cultures. Together, we are continually looking for new tools that minimize safety incidents and help make mines a safer place to work.

YOU'RE ON A JOURNEY TO ZERO. WE CAN HELP.
