VITRINA collection

The Vitrina Collection was inspired by the flowing shape of seagulls in flight. In the lake district of Northern Italy, seagulls will follow the small boats each day as they leave the dock to fish for the daily catch. Our designer was inspired by their fluidity and the profiles of their wings to create a collection that feels like it could take flight in spite of its brass construction. The name Vitrina means window and it evokes the image of Lake Orta with its clear as glass water.

GATTINARA collection

The Gattinara Collection was designed from the concept of organic flowing water from the rocks one would find in the crisp, clean streams and lakes near the Italian Alps. Its solid shape with modern aesthetic is designed to elicit the interpretation of nature in your home. The Gattinara Collection is a new take on a trough faucet with the mechanism for the trough becoming central to the design of the faucet itself. The name comes from the northern Italian wine region of Gattinara which produces bold, red wines that evokes the bold, modern aesthetic and natural beauty of the faucet.
