Galaxy S7 edge

The Samsung Galaxy S7 edge provides the security, productivity tools and ease of integration your business demands.

SAMSUNG Galaxy S7 edge

Demand best-in-class security.

Designed to protect companies in the most highly regulated industries, the Samsung Galaxy S7 edge features award-winning¹ Samsung KNOX security built in to the hardware. This enhanced and upgraded version of the Samsung KNOX platform provides even deeper integration with Android for Work and leading MDM providers, making it easier to deploy and monitor. In addition, the latest version of KNOX Workspace[†] supports Google Play for Work inside the container, Multi Window* support, speech-to-text, and even more robust IT controls.

Ensure maximum productivity.

Empower employees to stay connected with an all-day battery that offers wireless and fast charging.^{††} Expandable storage up to 200GB gives mobile workers the agility to pack more projects to go, and water resistance keeps them up and running in all environments and weather conditions. Designed with flexibility in mind, Samsung KNOX data separation solutions keep work and personal data isolated, giving everyone peace of mind.

Management on your terms.

The Samsung Galaxy S7 edge was built to eliminate surprises and protect existing investments by plugging right in to your current MDM, VPN or SSO providers. Samsung KNOX features give IT professionals granular authority, with over 600 policies and 1,500 APIs. Advanced Exchange Active Sync (EAS) offers unparalleled control policies while supporting the native email application. For extra peace of mind, the Samsung Galaxy S7 edge includes purchase assurance for two years with Samsung's Enterprise Device Program.

Designed to give your workers an edge.

The Samsung Galaxy S7 edge offers easy, one-handed operation while the larger 5.5" edge screen provides a truly immersive user experience. The curved edge screen provides intuitive and quick access to apps and critical information at a glance. With a compact form factor that looks as good as it performs, feel confident that you're putting your best phone forward as a reflection of your commitment to quality.
