INSTRUCTIONS & EXERCISES

SILENCER CAP:

The patented silencer cap on the end of your call is designed to keep the call from making noise as you move through the woods. It snaps into place until you are in position and ready to call. When ready, slip the cap off and follow the instructions below (See Diagram 1).

ONE-HANDED OPERATION (JAKE GOBBLES):

One-Handed operation will produce a broken gobble like that of an immature gobbler or jake. Grab The Gobbler "Shaker Call" around the bell of the call. Vigorously shake the call from side to side, first very loudly and aggressively, then taper the volume and intensity (See Diagram 2).

TWO-HANDED OPERATION (MATURE GOBBLES):

Grab The Gobbler "Shaker Call" around the bell with one hand, holding back the cap with your finger. Point it away from your body so that the sound will travel out into the woods (See Diagram 3). Loosely hold the weighted end of the bellows with your other hand (See Diagram 3). With the hand that's on the bell, push the call together then pull apart in a rapid pumping motion (See Diagram 3). Begin loudly and aggressively, then taper the volume and intensity.
