DORADO BEACH
EXPERIENCES

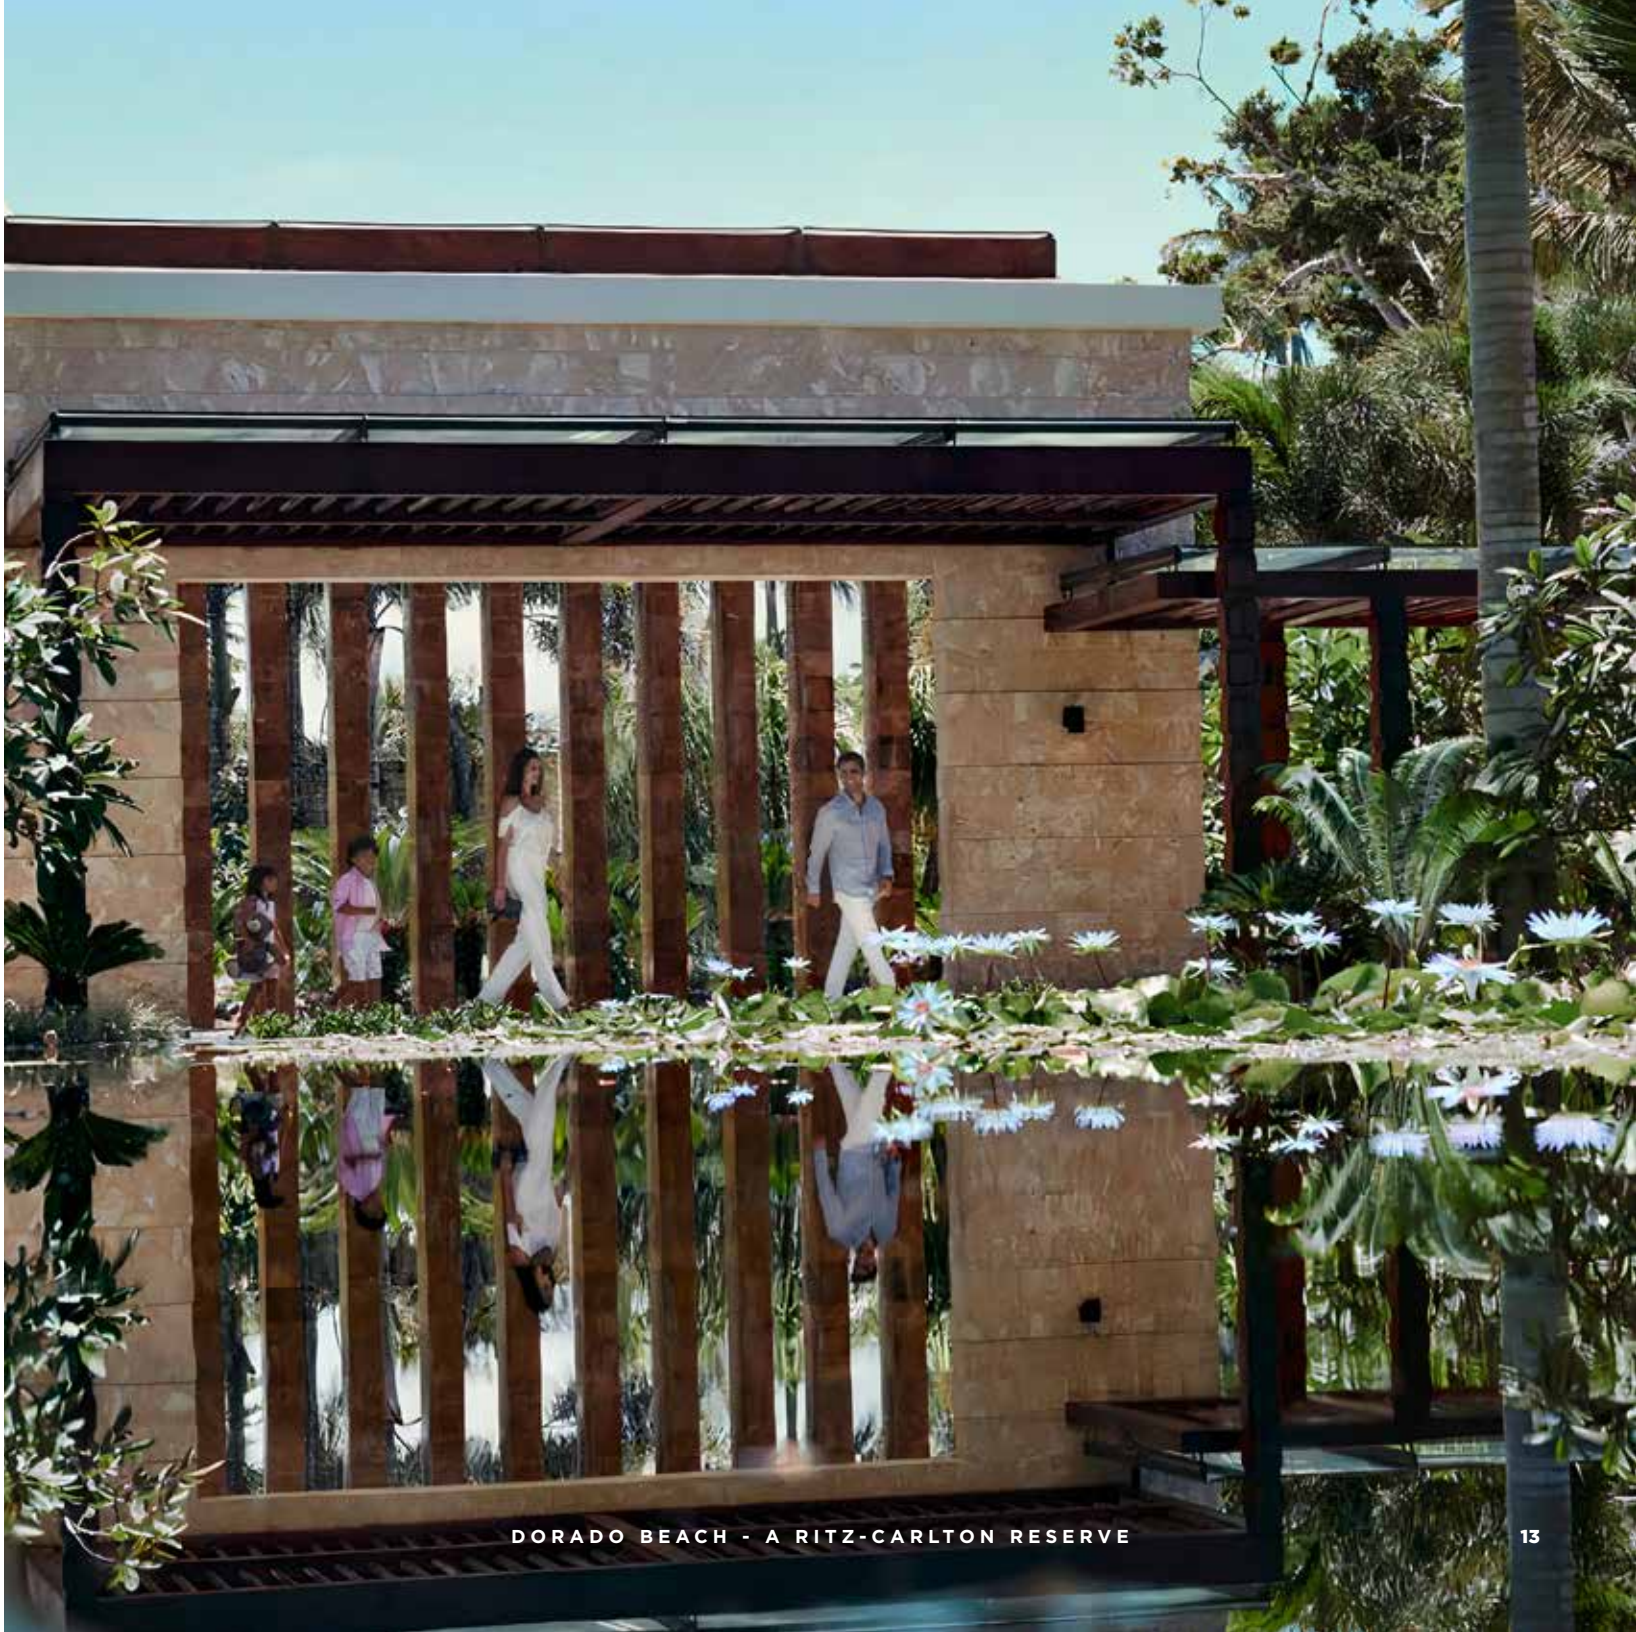

CONCIERGE HISTORICAL EXPERIENCE

Dorado Beach's story begins in 1905, when Dr. Alfred Livingston bought 1,700 acres along the northern coast and developed a coconut and citrus plantation. In 1955, Laurance S. Rockefeller, the venture capitalist and son of John D. Rockefeller Jr., acquired the property and three years later transformed it into a resort and natural sanctuary. John F. Kennedy, Elizabeth Taylor, and Ava Gardner were regulars and Amelia Earhart used to fly her plane to the island where the very same landing strip remains. Discover all the hidden gems of our property together with the Concierge team. Tour concludes with a visit to the Livingston Library.

DURATION:
1 hour.

AGES:
All ages are welcome.

INCLUDED:
Golf cart drive, concierge guide and champagne glass.
