The award-winning outdoor terrace lounge, Flair 5, returns for a brand-new season with an elevated menu and nightlife events

Dubai, United Arab Emirates, 01 October 2020 – The Ritz-Carlton, Dubai International Financial Centre announces the re-opening of its majestic, urban jungle, Flair 5. During its summer hiatus this must-try spot has redefined its menu to offer exquisite gastronomic experiences for the most discerning palates in the bustling financial district.

With its Japanese-Peruvian inspired delicacies, food gourmands can now relish in dishes such as Salmon Acevichado, Mushroom Ceviche, Black Cod Miso Glaze, Striploin Saltado to name a few. In addition to sampling items from the Nikkei inspired menu, guests can also indulge in a wide selection of herb-based beverages with personalized, aromatic twists and creative combinations. With a focus on home-crafted, botanically influenced fresh ingredients, the cocktails created by the talented team of mixologists are nothing short of alchemy. Guests can sip on a range of herb infused Juniper based teas with passion fruit, mango or berries and sparkling tonic.

The updated weekly line-up of the themed events, and an elevated nightlife experience aim to lure guests in to enjoy themselves in a tranquil garden space for an after work or al fresco dinner escape. Exuding the city's metropolitan flair, this haven for Dubai's professionals, foodies and socialites alike, will deliver yet another grand season.

Guests of this luxurious outdoor setting can expect the return of their favourite dishes, along with an array of new assortments to include exquisite confectionary and beverage choices and weekly promotions as Flair 5 is set to re-open.
