

The Ritz-Carlton, Washington, D.C. Launches Glamorous Ladies' Luxe Suite Package

Upscale accommodations in a Ritz-Carlton Club® Level suite, a seasonal dining experience, in-room hair and makeup and specialized itinerary options featured in the one-of-a-kind offering

Washington, D.C. – September 23, 2019 – The Ritz-Carlton, Washington, D.C., the District's premier luxury hotel, announces that it will offer a Ladies' Luxe package. Ideal for those looking for a city staycation or a fall getaway, the hotel invites guests to enjoy the new season with itinerary options that include attending a concert, working out at Equinox Sports Club and participating in a one-of-a-kind dessert experience with the hotel's Executive Pastry Chef.

The Ladies' Luxe package includes a two-night stay in a beautiful, newly renovated suite, a five-diamond room complete with a view of DC's picturesque West End neighborhood or Garden and a dedicated concierge. The Club® Level includes access to The Club® Lounge, an exclusive space offering multiple chef-curated food and beverage presentations throughout the day.

Upon arrival, guests will be treated to an in-room dessert amenity, along with monogrammed pillowcases in the room for an added personal touch. With dozens of award-winning artists flocking to the city this fall for concerts, there is no better time to enjoy live music in the District with girlfriends. With this package, guests can select four tickets, subject to availability, to see a show of their choice at The Anthem, the city's popular music venue located in the Southwest Waterfront neighborhood. Before the show, guests will be treated to in-room hair and makeup touch-ups from Glamsquad, an on demand hair and makeup service.

Those who purchase this package can enjoy an in-room dining experience or choose to grab a table at the hotel's award-winning restaurant, Westend Bistro. Here, guests can savor the flavors of fall with seasonal menu items and beverage specials.

The Ladies' Luxe package is available starting at $699 per night, and can be booked through November 9, 2019.
