WHISKY COCKTAILS

AKUMA

Nikka, fresh orange juice, agave syrup, chopped jalapeno

78

Akuma first appeared in Buddhist texts. It is said that due to the lack of monotheism, there was no opponent of God so akuma became the equivalent of Satan in ancient script. An Akuma is typically depicted as an entity with a fiery head and eyes while carrying a sword. Warning: Hot!

THE TRACE

Buffalo Trace, amaro nonino, spicy fig jam, lemon juice

78

Ancient buffalo carved paths through the wilderness that led American pioneers and explorers to new frontiers. One such trail led to the banks of the Kentucky River and in tribute to the mighty buffalo and the rugged, independent spirit of the pioneers who followed them, created this signature cocktail - “The Trace”.

MONACI

Parmesan infused Bourbon, balsamic, bitter orange marmalade, maple syrup

75

The first record of Parmigiana Reggiano is from 1254. Legend has it that around 900 years ago Benedictine monks living in the Parma Reggio region of Italy created this cheese when they needed to find a way to extend the shelf life of the large quantities of milk they were producing. During the 1300s and 1400s these monks had a monopoly on parmesan cheese and would export it to different regions of Italy. As the cheese became more popular, it spread to the rest of Europe. Its popularity brought with it an imitator leading to Italy issuing a decree that placed exclusive control over the production and sale of this cheese in the hands of the Parmigiano Reggiano.

THE ESTATE

Gentleman Jack, Aperol, spiced syrup, lemon juice, Zonin Prestige

88

Jack Daniel’s Distillery was established in 1866, it all Started when Jack ran away from home after his mother and father had both passed away. Prior to his death, Jack’s Father remarried, but Jack despised his stepmother and was taken in by a local preacher name Dan Call. Call began teaching about distilling, and in 1875 Jack founded a registered distilling business with Call using money from his late father’s estate.

KEN-95

Woodford Reserve, lemon juice, tobacco syrup, cranberry bitter, 7 spices

75

Kentucky boasts some of the richest most fertile soil in the country. Ideal for growing the major ingredients in Bourbon, Corn. It is the birthplace of Bourbon, crafting 95% of the world’s supply. The name “Bourbon” was not applied until the 1850’s and the Kentucky etymology was not advanced until the 1870’s. Although bourbon may be made anywhere in the United States, it is strongly associated with the American South and with Kentucky in particular.

THE LYCURGUS

Sacred pink grapefruit, grapefruit juice, mint, basil, blueberry syrup

75

Lycurgus is a type of mortal drink. It's made from grapefruit medieval liquour. It was Celts favorite drink because they believe it offered immortality for humans and a sacred state of drunkenness for the Gods. Pronounced (Lahy-kur-guhs)

PUMMELO

Gin infused pomelo, lime juice, honey, cucumber slice

65

There are 58 wild and domesticated citrus plants. They found that citrus spread rapidly from its origins in southeast Asia nearly 8 million years ago as monsoon rains weakened and a drier climate prevailed. The analysis showed that lemons, limes, oranges and grapefruits all trace some of their roots to three fundamental ancestors: citrons, mandarins and pummelo. In honor of one of the 3 OG's we have created our very own Pummelos.

THE MAYFLOWER

Plymouth gin, martini bianco, dom benedictine, elder flower syrup, lemon juice

75

Mayflower, the ship that retains special significance in the brand of Plymouth's 200-year history, as allegedly some of the Pilgrim Fathers spent their final night in Britain at the Plymouth monastery, before setting sail for the New World.
