MANDAPA, A RITZ-CARLTON RESERVE REINTRODUCED NATURE-BASED MANDAPA CAMP, TAILORED FOR THE ‘MINI EXPLORERS’

Discover Bali’s Natural Wonders and Rich Cultural Traditions at Mandapa Camp

Ubud, Bali – April 19, 2019 – Nestled in the heart of mesmerizing Ubud, where ancient stone carvings, scenic plantations, and rich cultural traditions await exploration, Mandapa, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve reinvites young experience collectors to go on a learning adventure in its new children’s facilities Mandapa Camp. Tucked in the midst of the verdant rice paddies, the newly relocated Mandapa Camp is the latest facility enhancement at this luxury Ubud retreat, officially opened since April 19, 2019.

The stunning whale-shaped bamboo building was constructed by IBUKU, a pioneering architectural and design firm building with bamboo in Bali, led by Elora Hardy, who also designed the famous Green School in Ubud. Mandapa Camp facility includes an organic garden, an enlightening bamboo hut that features a slide from the second floor to first floor, and an educational farm where young explorers can take care of the resort’s cow, chickens, ducks, and more. The camp is committed to educating for sustainability in a natural environment.

Tailored for children or the entire family to enjoy, activities at Mandapa Camp offers a chance to learn new skills, make new friends, and take part in a wide range of creative activities that encourage them to learn Balinese culture through arts, music and games. Signature activities include Camping and Bonfire Night at the grass lawn besides the camp, all under supervision, as well as Star Gazing with a telescope.

Opened in September 2015, Mandapa, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve, the third property in the prestigious Ritz-Carlton Reserve portfolio, features 60 luxurious suites and villas, four restaurants and lounges, and a Mandapa Spa. Designed as a sanctuary to relax one’s mind, body, and soul, Mandapa offers individually tailored spiritual, wellness and health programs as well as the personalized attention of a Patih or butler.
