NEW BOCKTAIL “COGNAC OLD FASHIONED” ARRIVES AT THE RITZ-CARLTON, TOKYO

TOKYO, JAPAN – June 29, 2020 – The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo has announced a new arrival to its exclusive range of “bocktails” – an innovative concept of bespoke bottled cocktails.

Cognac Old Fashioned is a classic vintage cocktail, elegantly presented in an original Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo bottle. The cognac base adds sophistication and softens the alcohol level; while the Maraschino, Triple Sec and bitters are all top-class ingredients made in Switzerland that combine to create a rich flavor dimension. It is the second in The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo’s new series of exclusive bocktails, following the debut launch of The Ritz Spritz earlier this year.

Cognac Old Fashioned can be enjoyed either by the glass or the bottle in the hotel’s restaurant outlets. Towers, a contemporary grill restaurant, is offering guests the chance to try the cocktail as an apéritif or digestif, presented on a special trolley. For a more casual yet refined experience, The Ritz-Carlton Café & Deli is serving the cocktail by the glass, costing JPY 900, or in 350 ml bottle presented in a special gift box for JPY 5,000, and 100ml bottle for JPY 2,250 (all prices are subject to taxes).
