

The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City Announces New Executive Chef

Chef Phil Skerman, legendary culinary excellence for The Ritz-Carlton brand

Arlington, VA [December 18, 2019] The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City announces the appointment of Phil Skerman as Executive Chef. He directs all food and beverage operations at the luxury property, located adjacent to the Pentagon and Air Force Memorial.

Renowned as a pivotal venue for banquets, for businesses, such as defense contractors, and social events, including weddings, Chef Skerman manages culinary preparations for over 700 events annually, overseeing a staff of 150 culinary professionals and support teams.

Previously, Chef Skerman was Executive Sous Chef at The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City. He has served as a chef at Ritz-Carlton locations throughout Florida and the Washington, D.C. region. Chef Skerman's background includes strategic planning and introduction of new food & beverage initiatives at The Ritz-Carlton, Tysons Corner.

The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City

Set against a backdrop rich in history and tradition, The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City offers a modernly elegant hotel experience near the nation's capital. Luxury accommodations and amenities, including a globally influenced restaurant and event space, are complemented by attentive service and an Arlington, VA location that is moments from historic landmarks, museums and shopping.

###