Not to forget the traditional dish, Gold Cured Hamachi Yee Sang Platter, as a symbol of abundance, prosperity and health for the New Year. As part of tradition, diners gather around the table and toss the shredded ingredients into the air with chopsticks while saying various auspicious wishes. It is believed that the height of the toss reflects the height of the diner's rise in fortunes. Therefore, diners are expected to toss enthusiastically.

To provide the same excitement for guests who want to celebrate the auspicious moment with family in the comfort of their own home, PA.SO.LA also presents delivery services. The Ladies & Gentlemen will be on their way to deliver some happiness to guests' addresses.
