EASTER AT THE RITZ-CARLTON, SOUTH BEACH

Newly re-opened iconic South Beach resort offers memorable Easter programming for all ages

MIAMI, FL. – March 12, 2020 –Just months after its grand reopening following a top-to-bottom renovation of the entire resort, the iconic Ritz-Carlton, South Beach invites guests to welcome Easter in true South Beach style, celebrating the glamour, vibrant culture and colorful history of this special destination. From Easter brunch with live entertainment at Fuego y Mar, to family spa experiences and Ritz Kids activities, an Easter celebration that is quintessentially South Beach awaits. Activities for adults abound as well, including a rose bar, a fresh margarita bar that boasts the vibrant flavors of Latin America at Fuego y Mar, and a poolside ‘mercadito’, where guests are invited to make their own fresh fruit and vegetable juices.

Easter Brunch at Fuego y Mar

Inside among the classic décor or outside enjoying the South Beach sunshine, a bountiful Easter brunch awaits at Fuego y Mar. Brunch classics, including chilled seafood, caviar, charcuterie and a carving station are complemented by dishes inspired by the Latin countries that make up the cultural fabric of Miami, including a ceviche bar, a grill station featuring chorizo and Argentinian sausage and whole snapper wrapped in banana leaf. A decadent dessert bar rounds out the meal, with sweet, colorful treats inspired by Alice in Wonderland. Live entertainment will accompany Easter brunch.

Sunday, April 12, 2020; 12 p.m.-3:30 p.m. $150 per guest; half price for children ages 6-12.

Springtime at The Ritz-Carlton Spa

Families are invited to indulge in a little holiday relaxation this Easter at The Ritz-Carlton Spa.
