RENEWED ROOMS AND SUITES

Immerse yourself in the new chapter of The Ritz-Carlton, Moscow

Moscow – March 2021 – A new era in the history of The Ritz-Carlton, Moscow begins now. We've introduced a design concept that aims to harmonize and accentuate the hotel's existing classical proportions, striving to enhance the guest's overall experience and exceed expectations.

The country's unique natural resources, precious materials, and outstanding craftsmanship are reflected throughout the hotel's renewed interiors, with a design direction that has been led by the natural and cultural richness that Russia has to offer. Light and sophisticated materials and colors give rooms and suites a timeless but modern finish, while molded ceiling and wall details are complemented by elegant accent furniture.

Inspired by a design concept that draws upon the Russian avant-garde, the Cube.Moscow art space has curated a selection of works by contemporary Russian artists, with predominant figures such as Elena Popova, Vladimir Semensky, and Lyudmila Konstantinova. In a complex but exciting selection process, Cube.Moscow considered over 1000 works from more than 40 artists. The Russian artists' works enliven and complement the hotel interiors by adding another dimension to the gorgeous decor of the rooms and suites they grace. From now on, guests can proudly gaze on the true pearls of the Russian contemporary art scene in the very heart of Moscow.

Renewed Rooms

The refined elegance of the new rooms at The Ritz-Carlton, Moscow is embodied by the details. The room layout has been carefully reconsidered, now including a clearly defined entrance hall area, where solid parquet floors are perfectly combined with wardrobes that create a dressing room space. Two full-length mirrors with the ideal direct lighting visually enlarge the space, while ivory walls enhance the overall comfortable ambience and ceiling moldings enrich and define the design aesthetic.

The classically inspired bedroom features a bedframe with headboard, nightstands, and crystal lamps that provide guests a luxurious ambience and experience. An azurite blue banquette adds enhanced comfort and style to the foot of the bed. Side cushions of the same color are decorated with pastel ribbon edging in accordance with the overall color palette of the room.

Opposite the bed is a beverage commode. A central feature of the room, it attracts attention with a design inspired by Russian mosaic marquetry and avant-garde style. Antique brass doors open to reveal a world of opulence, ready for celebrations with tea, coffee, and a variety of beverages. A diamond cut mirror serves as a backdrop for glasses and serveware. The countertop is clad in Sahara Noir black marble, and the side walls are finished with dark European walnut marquetry.

The living area incorporates a custom-designed desk/dining table and comfortable elegant chairs. Three layers of curtains and carpet in calm tones bring the various accent elements and materials together, while a mirrored panel emphasizes and visually doubles the space.

Executive Suites

Executive Suites are elegant accommodations with a spacious light-colored living room that is completely separate from the master bedroom. Furniture is upholstered with fabrics of the highest quality, which, combined with noble varieties of cherry wood, accentuate the luxurious furnishings.

Sophisticated materials and pastel colors were selected with a focus on the exceptional craftsmanship and vast natural richness of Russia. This is reflected in the subtle detailing and accents pieces that accompany the suites's furniture and art objects. Carefully curated artworks and accessories inspired by natural motifs include figurines made of porcelain and bronze. The suites are a fusion of classic and contemporary elements, pure materials, and state-of-the-art technology.

Cosmopolitan, chic, and contemporary – this is the essence of the Executive Suites, which overlook the beautiful and peacefully quiet courtyard.

Carlton Suites

Corner Carlton Suites feature scenic city center views. The living room contains a large and inviting sitting area. Decor accents are found in the side tables' green malachite elements as well as the large warm grey sofa and armchairs fitted with stylish and modern cushions. The suite's windows are accented by elegant layers of heavy patterned and satin curtains. The specially designed carpet brings all parts of the living room together. A beautiful oval table with a marquetry inlay and a crystal chandelier above welcome guests to gather together. On the opposite side of the living room is a desk, an elegant piece of furniture combining wood, brass, and leather detailing.

The bedroom is outfitted with custom furniture pieces and enhanced by architectural moldings for emphasis. Natural linen sheers let in the room's natural light while providing privacy. The vanity space is maximized with mirrors, noble materials and finishes, and lighting that's especially suited for guests' needs and comfort.

The Carlton Suites create an overall feeling that's classic with a contemporary twist, where each piece is a tribute to the new age of elegance.

Advanced technology for a comfortable stay

The renovated rooms and suites at The Ritz-Carlton, Moscow offer much more than just luxurious interiors. Modern technical equipment includes touchpad remote control lighting; complimentary Internet access; 55 and 65-inch Samsung flat-screen TVs that can connect to personal devices including wireless Bang & Olufsen Bluetooth speakers; state-of-the-art Samsung Frame art TVs, which replicate works of art when turned off; and Dyson intelligent hair dryers in Carlton Suites.
