The Ritz-Carlton New York, NoMad Now Accepting Reservations

New York, NY, November 3, 2021 – Today, the hotly anticipated Ritz-Carlton New York, NoMad hotel announced it is now accepting reservations. Guests are now able to reserve their stay at the soon-to-open hotel, located in the heart of Manhattan’s dynamic NoMad district.

The hotel’s 250 guestrooms and suites offer luxurious accommodations in the heart of Manhattan alongside legendary restaurants and bars by Michelin-starred chef José Andrés including Zaytinya, offering an innovative mezze menu inspired by Turkish, Greek and Lebanese cuisines served up in a sleek and modern setting by Rockwell Group, and a new iteration of the high-end avant-garde dining destination, the Bazaar, to come later in 2022. Andrés will also oversee the hotel’s rooftop bar, where guests can drink 500 feet in the air, as well as in-room dining, banquet events including weddings and more.

Newly built from the ground up and one of the tallest buildings in the area, the hotel boasts spectacular views from the Empire State Building down to the Statue of Liberty, and is just steps away from Madison Square Park, the Flatiron Building, and a short walk to the Highline.

The hotel will also offer the signature 6,800 sq ft Ritz-Carlton Spa and Fitness Center including eight treatment rooms, sauna & steam rooms, and a sprawling 10,000 sq ft of meetings and events space.
