

SUMMER PAVILION

夏苑

Chinese Executive Chef Cheung Siu Kong realised his passion for the culinary arts at the tender age of seven through helping his grandmother in the kitchen. In 1987, he joined a renowned restaurant in Hong Kong where he honed his skills in crafting delicate dim sum and authentic Cantonese cuisine. He moved to Singapore in 1996 before joining Summer Pavilion in 2003.

Inspired by Summer Pavilion's 'dining in a garden' concept, each of Chef Cheung's dishes are thoughtfully plated against the vibrant hues of the handpainted Richard Ginori tableware, bringing the summer celebrations to life.

"My cooking philosophy is simple. I believe that the key to creating authentic and exquisite Cantonese dishes is through modest cooking techniques which bring out the natural flavours of the ingredients," shares Chef Cheung.
