

THE RITZ-CARLTON, TOKYO WELCOMES KEVIN SONG, EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT MANAGER, ROOMS

TOKYO, JAPAN – July 10, 2019 – The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo is pleased to welcome Kevin Song as its new Executive Assistant Manager, Rooms effective immediately. In his role, he will oversee the management of all 247 rooms and suites at The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo, in addition to the front office, club level, guest relations, guest recognition, concierge, housekeeping, guest services, and spa and fitness. Kevin will report directly to the hotel’s General Manager, Yuji Tanaka.

Song brings with him over seven years’ experience with The Ritz-Carlton brand, having started with The Ritz-Carlton, Millenia Singapore in 2011 as its Director of Front Office. He subsequently held positions as Director of Rooms for The Ritz-Carlton, Dubai International Financial Center and The Ritz-Carlton, Osaka. Prior to joining The Ritz-Carlton brand, he worked for Starwood Hotels & Resorts, holding positions at The Westin Chicago River North, The Westin Dublin, and the St. Regis San Francisco.

“I am pleased to welcome Kevin back to The Ritz-Carlton brand where he belongs.” commented Yuji Tanaka, General Manager of The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo. “I witnessed his sharp leadership skills firsthand during the pre-opening training for The Ritz-Carlton, Bangalore. I believe his patience and great work ethic will stimulate the hotel’s ladies and gentlemen, and improve and create the services which our guests experience during their stay with us.”
