TURN UP THE HEAT FOR VALENTINE'S AT THE RITZ-CARLTON, ABAMA

Tenerife – 13 January, 2020, a go-to Winter-sun hotspot just got hotter for the annual celebration of heart-warming amour. Calling all romantics and those looking to go all-out to impress, The Ritz-Carlton, Abama hosts a retreat high on the finer things in life. A mecca for foodies in love, there's no better place to seduce than basking under a balmy Winter sun.

Staying in the resort's luxurious Tagor' villas Rooms & Suites, couples will enjoy the ultimate in seclusion. Set in lush tropical gardens, the villas provide generous sized living space, elegant interiors and grand marble bathrooms with indulgent Asprey amenities. Each villa Room or Suite comes with access to a semi-private pool, and a pool-side butler service on tap throughout the day.

With a choice of ten restaurants, a gourmet trail of decadence awaits with a crescendo of excellence at the two Michelin-starred M.B restaurant. Ten Michelin star Martin Berasategui and executive chef, Erlantz Gorostiza, have curated a creative and inventive culinary ride with their Valentine's menu. We recommend the caramelized millefeuille with smoked eel, foie-gras and green apple, followed by beef fillet wellington over Oporto Bordeaux, Chinese artichoke and dried apricot puree. For dessert, the iced chocolate sponge on a hazelnut cake, coffee ice cream and frozen whisky will get to work on the taste buds.

For the ultimate date night, couples can choose to take M.B to the beach! Pushing the pleasure principal, the Canary Island gem curates a celestial treat to awaken all senses on a journey of taste and natural wonder. Couples will be served a bespoke hamper of Michelin picnic courses, to be enjoyed while witnessing the award-winning clear skies, breath-taking star showers and constellations at the hands of one of the island's most knowledgeable astronomers.

The culinary trail doesn't stop there. On a short break of love, guests can enjoy the finest sashimi with an elegant sake pairing at Kabuki, nibble on gourmet tapas at Txoko, share El Mirador's signature seafood rice, and feast on wagyu entrecote at 20/20 Steakhouse.
