PUTTIN' ON A RITZY LUNAR NEW YEAR AT LI YEN

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia – 27 December 2019 – Li Yen at The Ritz-Carlton, Kuala Lumpur, the exquisitely redesigned Chinese restaurant reminiscent of a blossoming garden of elegance, has specially designed traditional Lunar New Year feasts to welcome the Year of the Rat. Executive Chinese Chef Alex Au and his stellar team have put on a fine display of culinary artistry in his creation of specially curated set menus featuring The Reunion Stars – a collection of reunion star dishes that emphasises on tradition.

This year, six exquisite set menus of traditional reunion delicacies and signature dishes are available for lunch and dinner, alongside a seasonal selection of delicate Dim Sum ideal for gatherings with family and loved ones. The new inclusion of the Chiu Chow Yee Sang adds a ritzy twist to the traditional festive toss.

The eight Reunion Stars featured across the lunch and dinner set menus include the Hong Kong-Style Waxed Meat Clay Pot Rice - 香港腊味煲仔饭; Dried Oysters with Sea Moss, Fish Maw and Seasonal Vegetable - 发财蚝土鱼鳔伴时蔬; Steamed Tiger Grouper with Bamboo and Fungus in Fish Sauce - 鱼汁鲜竹云耳蒸龙虎斑; Wok-Fried Prawns with Truffle Sauce - 松露酱明虾球; Chicken Simmered in Bouillon - 贵妃鸡; Braised Ten-Head Abalone with Mushrooms and Melon – 原只十头鲍扣北菇玉石; Three-Layered Nian Gao - 三色年糕 and Black Sugar Bentong Ginger Tea with Peach Gum and Sesame Dumplings - 文东姜黑糖桃胶汤.

The perennial favourite amongst the Reunion Stars this festive season is the Hong Kong-Style Waxed Meat Clay Pot Rice. Made with Chinese sausages specially flown in from Hong Kong, this dish requires up to 45 minutes to prepare for the flavours of the vegetables, Chinese herbs and meat to infuse into the rice leaving a distinct and rich flavour. Those with a sweet tooth would love the Three-Layered Nian Gao – luscious traditional Chinese glutinous rice cakes enveloped by generous slices of pumpkin, purple yam and taro and deep-fried until it is golden brown and crispy.

Located on the second floor, the 190-seater Li Yen offers an intimate ambience that embraces Chinoiserie design and elegant service. Seven stylish private dining rooms are available for creating indelible moments through joyous occasions, reunions or business functions. The private dining rooms can accommodate intimate groups of 8 and up to 30 for larger celebrations.

Available from now through 8 February 2020, the lunch set menus are priced from MYR148 nett per person with a minimum of four persons and the dinner set menus are priced from MYR1,988 nett per table of 10. The seasonal Lunar New Year Dim Sum, à la carte and Yee Sang menus are available from 24 January 2020 through 8 February 2020.
