FABRIC COLLECTION

This collection is inspired by an extraordinary Genoveva de Lima Mayer Ulrich, a Portuguese woman who defied the norms of 20th-century Portugal. Known for her bold personality, she walked a leopard through 1920s Lisbon, hosted lavish parties, traveled solo, hunted in Africa, and mingled with European aristocracy, including the British Royal Family.

As the wife of a diplomat and twice ambassador, she was also a novelist, playwright, and outspoken intellectual, unafraid to challenge Salazar. Feminine, irreverent, and modernist, VEVA captures the spirit of a trailblazing writer who broke societal constraints.

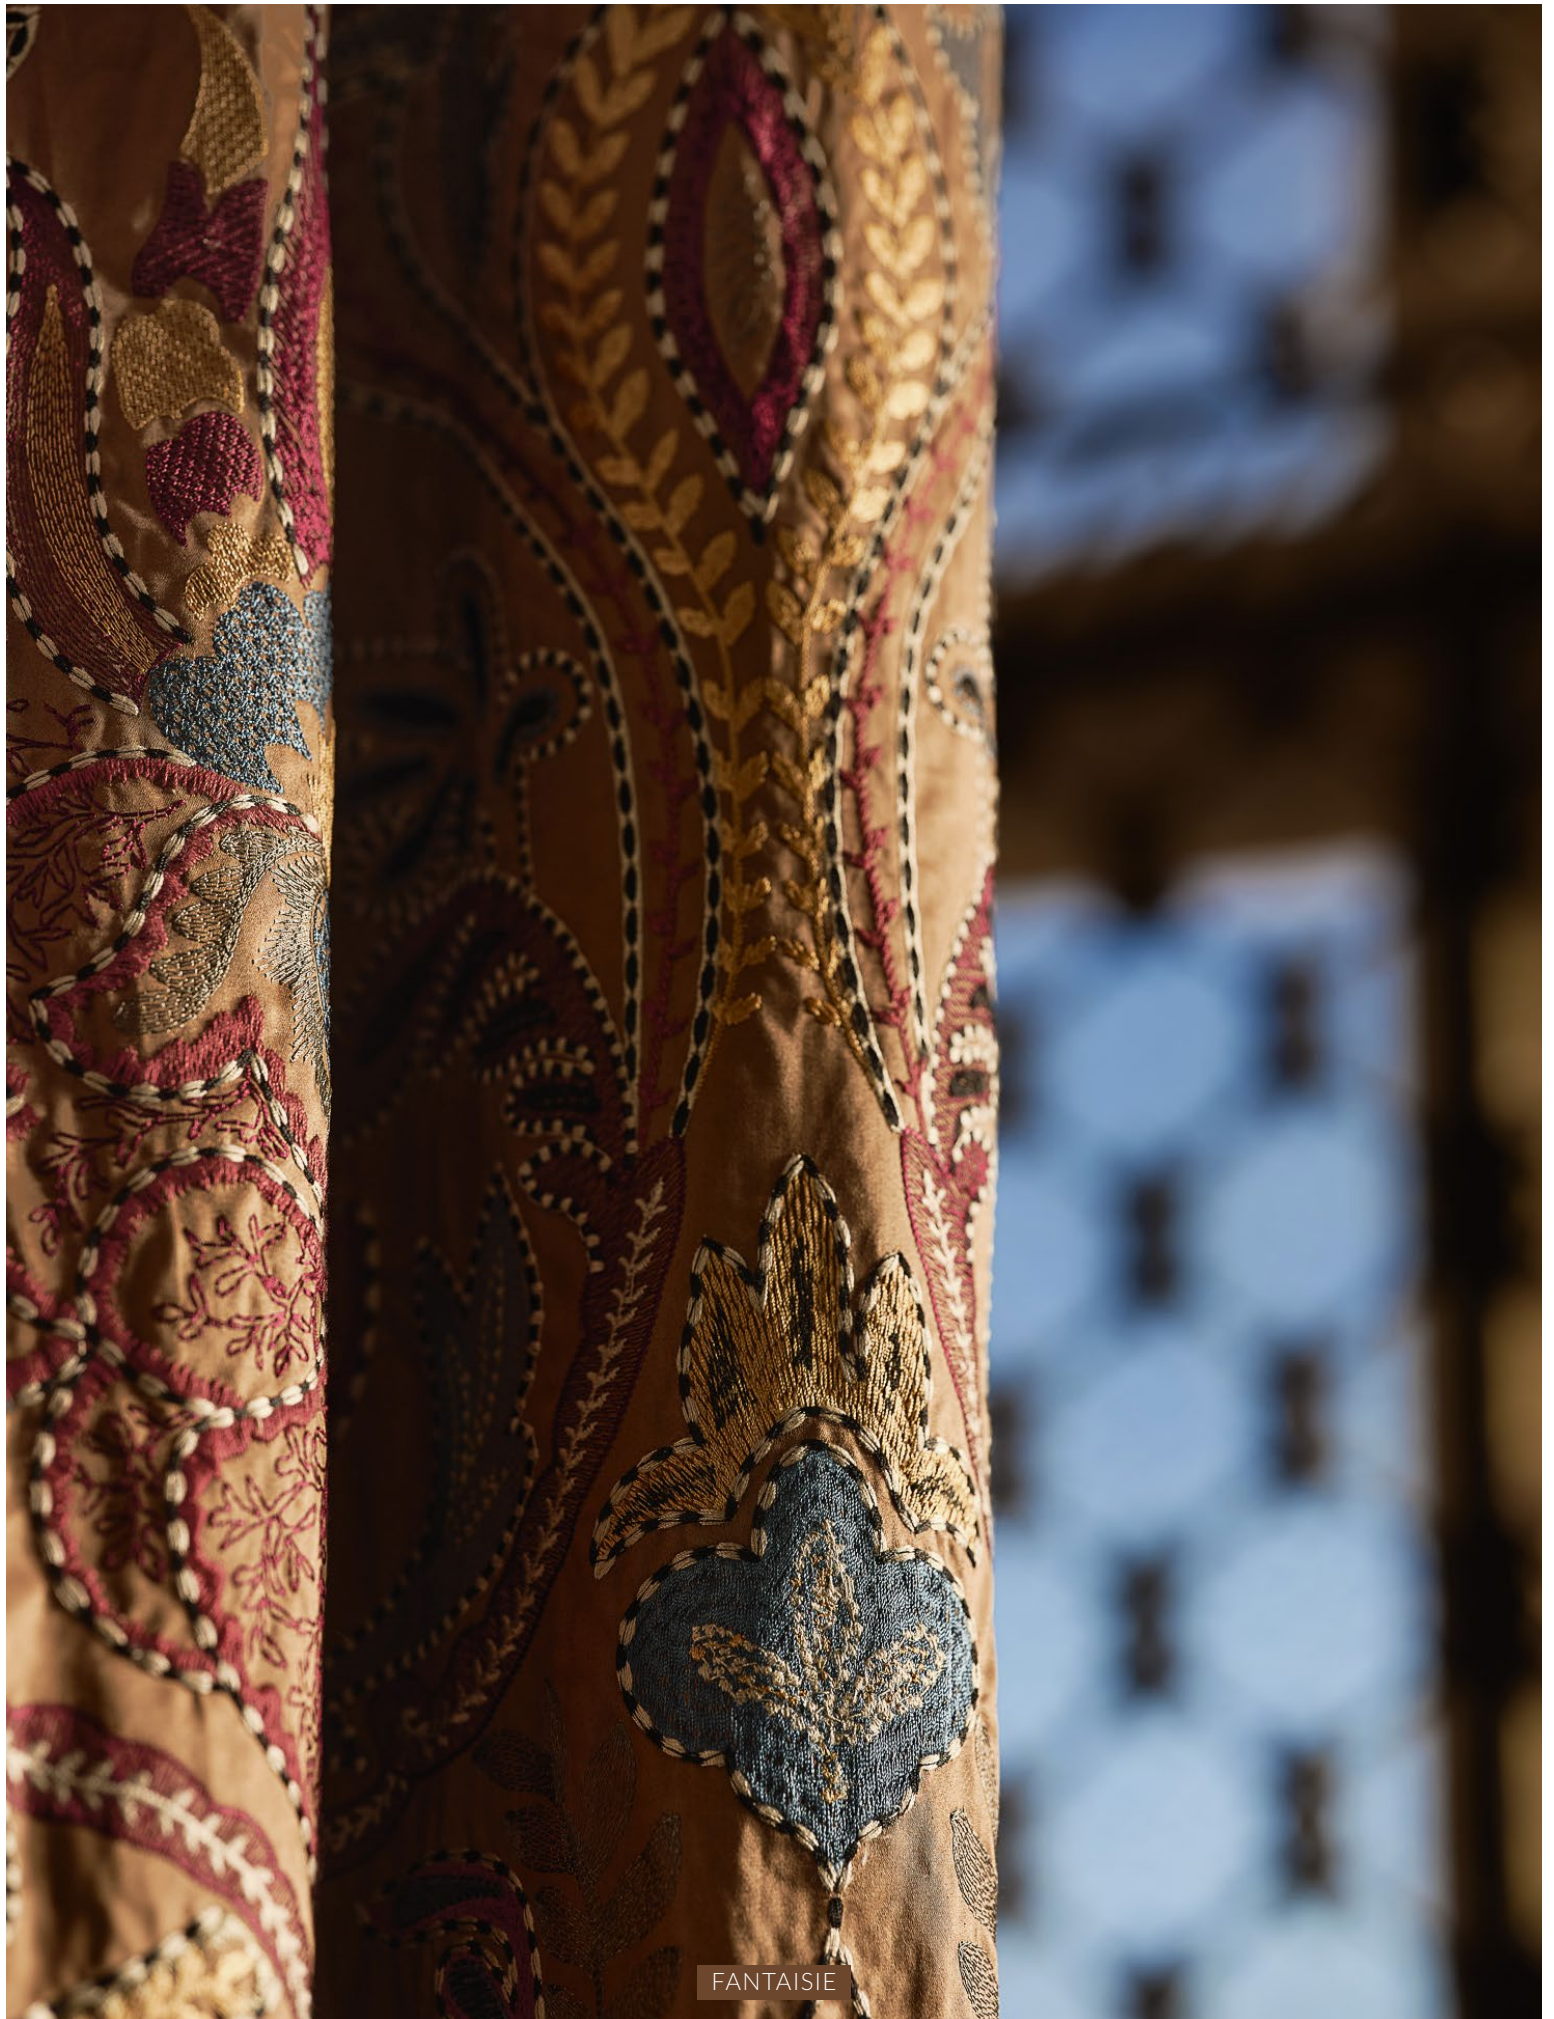

We weave these stories into intricate patterns, preserving the richness of a cultural identity designed to endure. Join us and be captivated by the bold sensuality of VEVA.
