CALABRIA

FABRIC COLLECTION

Scalamandré presents the Calabria Collection, an array of luxurious textiles inspired by the Italian heritage and homeland of company founder, Franco Scalamandré. Franco's father was a textile importer from Calabria, a southern Italian region well known for its lush landscape and ancient settlements of monasteries and castles. On the occasion of our 90th anniversary, we retrace Franco's steps to take inspiration from the area's natural beauty and history of traditional design.

The Calabria Collection is a curated selection of statement prints and sumptuous wovens celebrating the spirit of Scalamandré in updated hues, classic textile techniques and archival patterns reimaged for today's interiors. Couture-inspired color palettes breathe new life into traditional weaving techniques, like matelasse and lampas. Classic cotton is featured in two special plains — a moiré in fourteen fabulous hues, and a feather-soft plain-weave in perfect neutrals. A bold stripe and plaid are calendared for subtle sheen, and pair beautifully with the collection's new florals. This diverse offering pays homage to our storied brand with a renewed look at classic motifs.
